

TARIFF MEASURE IS BITTERLY ASSAILED

CONGRESS RUSHING MATTERS TO A VOTE ON IMPORTANT MEASURE.

STEAM ROLLER WORKS

Republican Minority Feel Effects of the Pressure of Voters of the Majority.

Washington, Sept. 9.—The final vote on the tariff bill will be taken in the senate at 4 o'clock this afternoon in accordance with an agreement reached before the senate adjourned shortly before 2 o'clock this morning after a sixteen hour session, including free wool and free sugar were disposed of.

Sensors who had remained in the chamber until adjournment returned to their homes at 4 o'clock for the final deliberations, the income tax, the committee on schedules and several other amendments remaining to be discussed. Senator La Follette planned to discuss the cotton schedule and need to amend the tariff. Senator Brister and Senator McCumber were ready for the final arguments against free cattle, free wheat and rates on other agricultural products and Senator Morris planned to urge valorization of coffee amendments.

An exodus of senators was confidently expected soon after the final vote, many indicating that they would leave town on their homes or vacation resting places as soon as possible. Senator Simmons in urging the hour of 4 o'clock for a vote asserted that it was imperative that the democrat who wished to vote on a tariff bill should leave town on a train at 5 o'clock. The tariff bill has been in the senate exactly four months and two days having been sent over from the house May 8th last. During the last session the tariff bill was introduced as a quorum is not expected until demands are made for consideration of the currency measure. This in all probability will come from the committee for many weeks.

At the meantime the senate will meet and adjourn every three days. House and senate leaders believe it will be two weeks or more before the disputed tariff bill will be agreed upon and accepted by both houses. The republicans today gave up hope of carrying any amendments and permitted many votes to be taken on the tariff bill. When the fight over agricultural products opened Senators Thornton and Ransdell of Louisiana, democrats, joined the republicans in voting against the low duties of the democratic bill.

An amendment by Senator Brister for a fifteen per cent duty on cattle, swine, sheep and other domestic animals was defeated 32 to 29. The main measure of the tariff bill, cutting of the 10 per cent duty on cattle fixed by the house bill and putting them on the free list was then ratified 31 to 28. Senator McCumber led the fight against free wheat.

The house bill imposed 10 cents a bushel, but the senate committee transferred the item to the free list. An amendment by Senator McCumber for a 15 per cent duty was defeated 35 to 29.

Sensor Jones made a further attempt to have retained in the bill the house provision for a 5 per cent duty on dutiable goods imported from American ships. He mustered only eleven republicans to his support, however, and the provision was removed.

Many foreign governments had protested against it.

Sensor Cummings declared during the tariff debate today that congress had lost its place in the affections of the American people who had turned their backs on the tariff single will—that of President Wilson. He assailed the democrats for the secret caucus and insisted they had ignored party principles. To prove this assertion he said he would read from the works of the "man who has more influence in the congress of the United States than any man ever before had."

He referred to President Wilson, he said. Senator Cummings noted from President Wilson's book "The New Freedom" and from the chapter headed "Let There Be Light." Its text, he said, was that the "popular will" should be the guide for the rule of guardians," he said.

Another futile effort to put an anti-trust provision in the bill—one to transfer imports to the free list—when it became apparent that they were controlled by trusts and business was defeated. "This was an opportunity for the democratic party to give some real relief from the burdens imposed by trusts and combinations," said Senator Cummings.

DROWNING MYSTERY REMAINS UNSOLVED

Smith, a wealthy society woman of Lake Forest, Ill., Chicago's most exclusive suburb whose body was found floating in Lake Michigan today discussed the circumstances of her death and were unable to offer any satisfactory explanation of the case. The coroner's jury, which developed no clue to the cause of death. The verdict read: "We the jury find that Florence B. Smith, came to her death by drowning in Lake Michigan off the shore of Lake Forest."

SLOWLY TRACING THE UNKNOWN MURDERER

New York Police Hard at Work on Clues of Mysterious Woman's Death.

New York, Sept. 9.—The cold trail of the murderer who skillfully cut up his victim and sunk her body in the Hudson river less than ten days ago led detectives today to the little second-hand store of George Sachs on the upper west side.

The body, the pillow with the fancy red and blue ticking in which a portion of the slain girl's body was found. A middle aged woman, stout and poorly dressed, bought it last April. The hunt narrowed today to a search for this middle aged woman. Who she is and where she lives were questions a swarm of detectives set themselves to answer.

The pillow was traced directly to her because the manufacturers had made but a dozen. Sachs and Sachs had sold but two. One of these was accounted for, the other went to the woman sought by detectives.

The ten remaining pillows lay on Sachs's shelves. This river had sold this morning no further members of the victim's body and identification was still guess work. Until the head is found or the woman who bought the pillow identification will probably be impossible.

Stories of girls missing from home have come by the dozen to the district attorney's office since the murder came to light. There are two instances, however, in which detectives were interested above all others. One was the case of Ella Steinhilber, missing a year, whose father is the author of several incoherent letters to the district attorney. The other was the case of a girl named Jeanette, who was employed at a local amusement park. She disappeared on August 31. That is the date of the newspaper wrapped about the second portion of the torso. Indications that the slain girl was an actress have caused the police to institute general search for Miss Nora.

At the meantime the senate will meet and adjourn every three days. House and senate leaders believe it will be two weeks or more before the disputed tariff bill will be agreed upon and accepted by both houses. The republicans today gave up hope of carrying any amendments and permitted many votes to be taken on the tariff bill. When the fight over agricultural products opened Senators Thornton and Ransdell of Louisiana, democrats, joined the republicans in voting against the low duties of the democratic bill.

GET SECOND RETURN OF A POLAR RECORD

Danish Explorer Notified Admiral Peary of Discovery of Record Deposited in Greenland.

New York, Sept. 9.—Gen. Thomas R. Hubbard of the Peary Arctic club, made public today the news of a second return by a Dane of important records left by Admiral Peary in the Polar regions. The governor of Denmark, through his minister to the United States, has sent to Admiral Peary the record he deposited in a cairn at Navy Cliff on the northeast coast of Greenland in July, 1912. Twenty years later, in July, 1932, the record was recovered by the Danish explorer, Knud Rasmussen.

The first crossing of Greenland from west to east was made by Peary in 1892. He and his only companion, Elvind Astrup, completed the cairn on Navy Cliff at the place where he left a request printed on it back in various languages that its finder note the time and place of finding and forward it to an indicated destination. Rasmussen found the cairn in 1912. Peary's record, from it, noted that it was his government. This incident is the duplication of one that occurred in 1912. In January of that year the Danish minister to the United States transmitted to the Peary Arctic club Peary's record deposited at the terminus of the sledge journey around the extreme north of Greenland, May 1900, and inland and brought away by members of the Denmark expedition in May, 1907.

These two records mark the success of two original efforts. One was the first crossing from west to east of inland Greenland. The other was the first determination of Greenland's northern and northeastern boundaries.

Peary left both records where no man's foot had trod before his own. One record was placed in the solitary resting place after twenty years. Each was found by a Danish explorer.

CROPS ARE RUINED BY LONG DROUGHT; MILLIONS ARE LOST

Unfavorable Weather Wrecks Bumper Crops, Causing Loss, Says Government Report.

Washington, Sept. 9.—Hot weather and drought have played havoc with the nation's corn crop causing a loss of $21,000,000 bushels, according to the government monthly grain report issued today. Since the first estimates of the prospects of corn this season were made there have been a decline in conditions amounting to 666,000,000 bushels and from the prospects indicated by the condition of the crop on September 1 the harvest will be 227,000,000 bushels. An increase in the estimate of the spring wheat crop places that at 247,000 bushels, making the combined crop of winter and spring wheat the greatest wheat crop ever raised, exceeding the record crop of 1911 by six million bushels. The condition of white potatoes deteriorated to such an extent that the August estimate of that crop were reduced to fourteen million bushels to 235,000 bushels.

Washington, Sept. 9.—The September crop report of the department of agriculture issued at 2:15 p. m. today announced the following:

Corn condition 65.1 of a normal; indicated yield 23 bushels per acre; national total production 2,251,000,000 bushels.

Spring wheat condition 75.3; yield 19.0; production 243,000,000 bushels.

Rye condition 75.4; yield 18.2; production 15,100,000 bushels.

White potatoes condition 69.9; yield 38.1; production 325,000,000 bushels.

Tobacco condition 75.0; yield 55.2 pounds; production 861,000,000 pounds.

GAIN TO DEMOCRATS IN MAINE ELECTION

Michigan Congressman Gives His Views on Yesterday's Results.

Washington, Sept. 9.—Representative Doremus of Michigan, chairman of the democratic congressional campaign committee was an early White House caller today and analyzed the results of the Maine election yesterday as a distinct democratic gain. Doremus pointed out that Cattell, the democratic candidate polled a greater vote than did President Wilson in the same district last fall.

"In a district that has always been republican," he said, "having elected a democratic only once since the civil war the results show that the democrats more than held their own. This is highly gratifying especially in an off year election."

JANESVILLE SCHOOLS TO COMMEMORATE BATTLE OF LAKE ERIE

Exercises Will be Held in Court House Park, Fourth Ward Park And Washington School Grounds.

Janesville city schools will tomorrow commemorate the one hundredth anniversary of the Battle of Lake Erie with joint exercises held in different parts of the city. The pupils in the Adams and Jefferson schools will march to the Court House Park at eleven o'clock a. m., where an address on the Battle of Lake Erie, its history and significance, will be given by Superintendent H. C. Buell. The children will sing three songs: "America," "The Star Spangled Banner," and "Battle Hymn of the Republic." Pupils in the Washington and Grant schools will gather at the Washington school at 1:30 o'clock and those in the Douglas, Jackson, Lincoln, Webster and Garfield schools will meet in the Fourth Ward Park at three o'clock p. m. The exercises at the Washington school and in the Fourth Ward park will be similar to those in the Court House park. The hours in which the commemorative exercises are held are those in which the battle of Lake Erie was fought.

The replica of the flag on Perry's flagship bearing the words, "Don't Give Up the Ship" will be displayed at the high school at ten minutes to nine and at the Jefferson and Adams schools' exercises in the Court House park. Superintendent Buell will give an address on Commodore Perry at the morning exercises at the high school. At the exercises in both the Washington and Grant schools the pupils will perform a play on the battle of Lake Erie and drum corps and carry flags, forming a commemorative pageant.

NO POLITICS FOR THE POSTMASTERS

This is Sentiment Expressed at Meeting Being Held in Milwaukee Today.

That the next congress will take all the postmasters out of politics by a civil service law is the prediction made by early arrivals from all over the state to attend the eleventh convention of the Wisconsin association of Postmasters in Milwaukee today. The postmaster in the United States is a third floor of the government building, Milwaukee. "It would be one of the most popular laws ever passed by any congress so far as the people are concerned," said one. "The postmaster is the best of the people and the best men are none too good for them in handling it. Now there are good men in charge of postoffices for only a part of every four years. The first year the new man is no good, the second he is learning, the third he is well equipped to do the work, but during the fourth he loses interest again, because he is looking for a new job to go into when he is let out by the incoming administration."

The Wisconsin officials are finding themselves in such a predicament just now. Most of them above the fourth class, which is under civil service rules, will leave the office within the year. No matters of politics, it is said, will be discussed and no other matters of great moment are expected to come up in the convention. The most important thing to be considered is the new eight-hour law, which will be discussed by Earl S. Welch, Eau Claire. This federal statute, which has been on the books only since Jan. 1, cost the government more than $4,000,000 a year, according to Postmaster D. C. Owen, Milwaukee. "The law does not benefit the employees," he says, "while it provides that not more than ten hours must elapse between the time the eight-hour term begins and ends. This makes it practically impossible for the same shift to handle the heavy morning and evening mails, leaving comparatively long leisure periods between."

BLANKS ARE READY TO RECORD YIELDS IN CORN CONTEST

Instructions Will be Sent Out to Boys Who Are Competing for Gazette Prizes.

Blanks upon which will be kept the official record of each acre of corn entered in the Gazette corn contest will be sent out to the boys throughout the county who are competing for the prizes. The contest editor has received reports on the condition of the crop from the majority of the contestants and indications for some big yields are very bright. The result will undoubtedly be very close and as the time draws near the interest grows keener. Following is given a reproduction of the blank and instructions to be sent out:

GAZETTE CORN CONTEST

How to Measure and Harvest the Acre Corn Plot

In order to allow plenty of time to care for such seed as the boys wish to pick, the management of the Gazette Rock County corn contest has seen fit to place each boy upon his honor in husking, and weighing the corn from his acre.

All that is necessary is to carefully weigh all the corn as soon as it is picked and record the net weight upon a sheet of paper which accompanies this circular and which must be returned to the Gazette before Nov. 1, 1913.

The parent or guardian's signature as well as the boy's must accompany every sheet before it will be accepted.

The plot must be measured before husking is started and the parent or guardian must oversee this measurement.

Husking may be started whenever the boy desires and no definite amount need be husked in any one day.

Weighing can be done on either platform scales or any correct scale that has a capacity of 100 lbs. or more.

When husking is completed hand or mail at once record sheets to the corn contest editor at the Gazette office together with a ten ear sample of the corn and an itemized account showing the exact cost of producing the acre of corn.

All reports must be in by Nov. 1, 1913.

Affidavits must be furnished upon request of the contest management.

Corn Record and Checking Sheet

I hereby certify that the corn recorded on this sheet has been harvested by me or under my supervision, and was produced entirely on one acre (160 square rods) of land.

The planting, cultivating and harvesting was done entirely by me or under my supervision in the Gazette Corn Contest.

I hereby certify that the weighings of the corn, measurements of the field are absolutely correct and have been done in my presence.

WILL FATTEN SHEEP FOR CHICAGO MARKET

Fifteen Thousand Sheep Will be Fattened at Spring Brook and on the Canning Factory Farms.

Spring Brook promises to become one of the principal sheep feeding stations in this section of the country as the managers of the Hohensadel Canning factory have closed a deal whereby, fifteen thousand sheep will remain on the farms operated by the Hohensadel company for a period of ninety to sixty days for fattening before they are shipped to the Chicago markets.

One thousand head of Western sheep were unloaded at the canning factory this morning (this shipment being the first to arrive in this city). The entire fifteen thousand are sent from one of the largest sheep ranches in Montana and shipments will be made from Livingston. The feeding stations will be in charge of D. V. McCormick and C. F. Madden and at present two farms have been contracted for the stations. Deals for several more are pending.

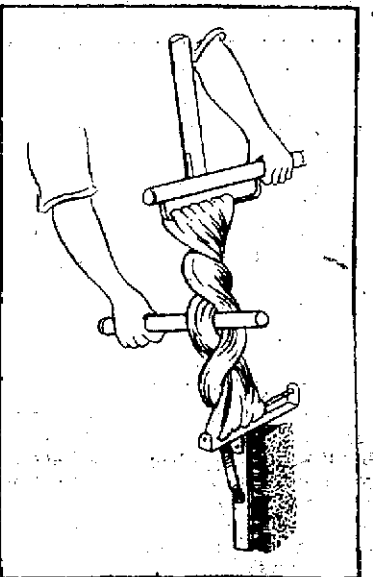

At present the canning factory is running with a force of nearly two hundred workmen, the corn season being at its height and between seventy and eighty thousand ears of corn are being turned out daily. Wisconsin has been fortunate in regards to favorable weather and while the crop is not as heavy as in previous years, corn of better quality is seldom seen.

One of the men who accompanied the sheep remarked that there was more feed on a few square feet of the new feeding grounds than on as many acres of the range from which the sheep had been shipped.

NEW FLOOR CLEANER

Wringing Bar Attachment Squeezes Water From Mop.

A new floor-cleaning implement has been patented by an Illinois man. It is a long-handled mop, with a scrubbing brush attached, and a wringing bar attachment for squeezing the mop dry. The mop is attached to the handle by one of its ends and the wringing bar is hinged to the handle to the loop in the other end. When the mop is to be wrung out, the bar is inserted and the mop drawn up to the handle as far as it will stretch.

TWIST MOP TO WRING IT.

Another bar is thrust between the two strands and they are twisted around the handle into plaits, the twisting being continued until all unnecessary water is drained from them. There is also a scrubbing brush hinged to the lower end of the handle that can be used in conjunction with the mop for more effective work.

Roman Laws Against Suicide.

Roman laws, permeated with stoic doctrines, looked indulgently upon those who took their own life and frowned only when this means was employed to evade punishment for some capital offense. Retribution, however, followed the suicide, for his goods were confiscated unless some measures were taken to placate the reigning and angered Caesar.

The attention of hunger strikers is invited to the fact that, at the age of ninety-five, it took a Pennsylvania fifty-six days to starve himself to death.

Now that eleven European nations have protested against our proposed tariff law there seems no reason why congress should hesitate.

More than 100,000 acres are devoted to the cultivation of peanuts in Oklahoma. Which probably accounts for Oklahoma's brand of politics.

A census of millionaires is being taken by Chicago. If Pittsburgh tried it the numerators would have to go to Broadway, in New York.

The presence of two burglars in a Chicago home was betrayed by their coughing. The stockyards odor is of some use after all.

Jerome was not guilty of gambling under the Canadian law. In fact the judge apologized to him for having had him arrested.

Bryan objects to be classed with the vaudeville actors who are now appearing on the same chautauqua platforms that he is.

"Russia is going to try sport as a cure for revolution," great scheme. The Reds can take it out on the umpire.

Four thousand deaths are caused every year in Mexico by scorpions. Then what does it want with all those revolutions?

At least there is some comfort to be got out of the Thaw case. The people who are cheering him are not Americans.

A Chicago professor says he has never kissed a girl. But as he is a Chicago professor, the reason isn't far to seek.

THE DIARY OF A BONEHEAD.

Every man has two ambitions in his life. One of them is to play in the band and the other is to raise chickens. The desire to spread John Phillip Sousa's music over the landscape in large gobs comes when a man is young and in the moulding stage. The desire to raise chickens comes later when a man ought to know better.

When my son expressed a desire to join the band a short time ago I did not discourage him. I asked him what instrument he preferred and after thinking the matter over for some time, he replied that he would dearly love to play a slide trombone. I bought him one and told him to do his worst. I knew that while he was playing the slide trombone he wouldn't be doing anything else and that is some satisfaction.

There was no place for him to practice his trombone music excepting at home. His teacher called three nights a week and the other four nights he practiced alone. He was the worst slide trombone fan I have ever seen. He used to take his trombone to bed with him and sleep with it under his pillow.

What my son did to that neighborhood was nothing less than a crime. The neighbors began to complain the second night and by the fifth night they were swearing revenge and threatening injunctions. For revenge one of them imported nine cats, another bought a phonograph with a horn as large as the spoked wheel of a battleship and kept the machine running all night. A third bought a second-hand callopie from a circus.

In spite of the opposition my son practiced on, and I finally compromised with the neighbors by buying all of their noise producing instruments and moving my entire family to the country for the summer. We got a house nine miles from civilization in the heart of the wilderness and my son and John Phillip Sousa are having it out in rough and tumble, no holds barred, and Sousa is still a little bit ahead.

A burglar is going to enter our house and steal that horn before we return home and the $25 band uniform which I bought will go with it.

According to Uncle Abner.

I have heard of many economical people, but I think that a woman that borrows her neighbor's rat is going to starve to death.

I hate a most mortem conversationalist, one of them fellows that comes around after you are married and asks you right in front of your wife if you don't remember this and that which happened to you ten years before.

A $7 mewl kin kick just as hard as a $17 one, although he may not be so beautiful or fat to see. I have also seen a fellow with a $9 suit that also seen a fellow with a $5 suit that the fellow that paid $50 for his'n. So you can't always tell.

The hippopotamus is one of the most graceful of the animal kingdom and has got a smile that kin take in a burro and a couple of munging ponies. He has an important mission in this world and that is to be shot. He ain't no good before he is shot and he ain't no good after he is shot excepting to make rat boots out'n. Nature surely played an awful joke on the hippopotamus.

Sister's Education.

Since sister's been to college, I would set your brain on fire.

To listen to the knowledge she's managed to acquire. She talks rich up consarnin'.

Her school, just like a book. But still, with all her learnin'.

She don't know how to cook.

She's pretty strong on science. And she can operate.

Most any known appliance. Invented up to date.

The folks admire her mainly. But dad began to knock.

When she informed him plainly. She couldn't darn a sock.

She's long on conversations. About the ancient Greeks.

And humbles the relations. Most every time she speaks.

Her talk is very witty. With repartee that takes.

But don't set your mind to make. She can't make buckwheat cakes.

It's fifteen years or better. Since she came home from school.

And all the boys have a real. And liked her, as a rule.

But still there's nothin' doin'. And dad has one regret.

That keeps him awfully stewin'. No, sis ain't married yet.

Heart to Heart Talks.

By EDWIN A. NYE.

DESIRE AND USE.

If you would develop the powers within you there is but one way: Use them.

In the south sea islands are certain birds that have no wings. Zoologists tell us the birds once could fly; but, there being no carnivorous beasts or reptiles in those countries, the birds had no need to defend themselves or their young.

Therefore—

The birds grew too lazy to fly up into the trees and build their nests. They lived on the ground and fed on insects. Centuries passed. Gradually the wing muscles grew dabby, the wing bones of each generation smaller. Finally, by the process of evolution, the birds came to be wingless.

So of your powers.

If you do not use your muscles they will grow dabby and smaller and of no account. So also of your mind. If you do not use the muscles of your will or of your memory or of any faculty of your intellect they will grow small, dabby, of no account.

Another illustration:

Darwin tells us that at first the eagle could not fly. Its wings were too small and weak. But it wanted to fly, and it tried to fly. Each eagle inherited from its ancestors the desire and determination to fly. Years passed. Pinions grew. Muscles swelled. And then—

By and by there came a day when the first eagle soared into the empyrean.

Wonderful!

Yes, but natural. Use develops power. Desire and use, coupled together, will create power.

If any part of your body is weak—and there is no organic disease—desire and use will make it strong.

If any faculty of your mind is weak—and there is good gray matter in your brain pan—desire and use will make it virile.

But—

If, like the birds, you grow lazy and refuse to fly and stay upon the ground your faculties will grow limp and useless.

If you do not challenge your soul to action your inheritance will come to naught.

Is not that fair?

And compelling?

ICE-CREAM CONE HOLDER

Wire Frame Has Rings to Receive a Number of Cones.

A few years ago the ice-cream cone was a delicacy only appreciated by children, whose parents would never think of eating one. Now the whole family has the cone fever and the corner drug store and ice-cream saloon do a rushing business in these sweeties by the dozen and half-dozen. For the convenience of carrying a number of cones at a time a California man has designed the accompanying holder. As will be seen, it is a frame made of a single piece of wire bent and twisted upon itself to form a heart-shaped object with four legs and a plurality of rings or loops, into which the cones are dropped. While one of these holders a half-dozen cones may be carried without one touching the other or the hands touching any, which is much better than being wrapped in paper or placed in a bowl.

EACH CONE CARRIED SEPARATELY.

AN ORIGINAL BRYAN MAN IN CONGRESS

Joseph B. Thompson, one of the new congressmen-at-large from Oklahoma, says in his biography in the Congressional Directory that he "has always been a progressive Democrat and an ardent supporter of William J. Bryan."

Mr. Thompson has been a delegate to every one of the big Democratic conventions of late years and was one of the framers of the state's constitution.

NOT SATISFIED WITH DAVIES APPOINTMENT AS TO POSTMASTERS

Local Old Line Democrats Object to Present Political Situation in District.

Indignant over the manner in which the Democratic organization of Rock county has been ignored in the matter of patronage by the national committee of Wisconsin, Joseph E. Davies, now President Wilson's commissioner of corporations, Frank R. Morris of Milton Junction, one of the leading Democrats of the county and an active party worker, has voiced a protest against what he terms the discrimination against former supporters of Speaker Clark and these who said that this protest is only the beginning of a fight for recognition by the regular organizations that will have an important bearing on the contest for the Janesville and Beloit post office appointments.

The lines of difference were drawn by the recent appointment of George Keith to the Milton Junction post office on the recommendation of Mr. Davies. The regular Democratic organization had endorsed Mr. Morris for the position and had shown that his opponent had more often worked in Republican ranks and had voted in Republican caucuses.

Much reliance was placed by the organization on the frequent statements of Mr. Davies that there would be no lines drawn by the administration between democrats who supported Speaker Clark and those who supported Mr. Wilson in the primaries and that they would be equally recognized. It is claimed now that Mr. Morris was turned down because he was a Clark man and also worked for Judge Karel for governor.

Referring to an interview last spring between Mr. Davies and various Rock county organization Democrats, Mr. Morris declares that at that time Mr. Davies stated that if an organization man, the fact of my being National Committeeman has placed the Wisconsin patronage outside of the democratic districts in my hands. I will not shrink the responsibility or delegate my powers to any man in my county and I haven't promised my endorsement to any man, except one in Northern Wisconsin. At Edgerton Mr. Jensen shall name the man. I wouldn't think of interfering. A candidate for any position must have the endorsement of his county chairman, member of the state central committee from this district and the man who ran for congress, before he will be considered by me, but I will retain the right to the final decision.

Mr. Morris believes that he has been dealt with unfairly because he had all these endorsements, besides those of state Chairman Henry, and of Assemblyman Paul of Rock county. He also had a most gratifying home endorsement for the postoffice. His opponent had no organization support but was backed by J. J. Cunningham, a former member of the state central committee.

Concerning another interview between Mr. Davies and State Committeeman Andrew Jensen and County Chairman Kavelaas, Mr. Morris says, "Mr. Davies said that if you hear Jerry? See him and fix it up and both of you get what you want. I owe a great personal political debt to Jerry and I must give him something." I said, "Does that mean Jerry for the Janesville postoffice?" he said, "Yes." I asked Mr. Davies if he owed Jerry a big enough personal debt to give him full control of Rock county patronage against the wishes of the organization? He evidently does because he was my opponent's only backer."

The Milton Junction postoffice is the only one for which an appointment has been made in Rock county. Conferences are now in progress including Beloit and Janesville and the regular organization deserves to be recognized in these cases.

CALENDAR ON PEN

Revolving Figures in Handle Form Perpetual Indicator.

No excuse for the man who forgets the date if he use one of the fountain pens designed by an Illinois genius. In the handle of this pen is a perpetual calendar, and once the user gets the habit of setting this calendar each morning he is never at a loss for the day of the month. Rows of numerals representing the days of the month, revolve around the handle. Above these numerals are the days of the week and below is a hand that is adjustable at different points on the handle and that serves as a frame for the date or the week that the user may want to pick out. Usually the present date is thus a busy man may always have the day's date literally at his fingers' ends, and any other date of the month will be quite as convenient for a ready reference.

MAKE FIRST ARRESTS IN CLEAN-UP CASES

POLICE SERVE WARRANTS TO DAY AGAINST ALLEGED VIOLATORS OF CITY ORDINANCE.

BROUGHT INTO COURT

Mrs. Cypryan Coran and Oscar H. Hand Plead Not Guilty to Charge of Conducting Assignment House.

Warrants for the arrest of four alleged violators of the city ordinance which forbids the sale of liquor without a license and the running of houses of assignment, were served by the officers of the police department. The alleged offenders were brought into court by Judge Maxfield in the municipal court where they entered their pleas.

Oscar H. Hand and Mrs. Cypryan Coran were placed under arrest this morning and appeared in court at eleven o'clock. Hand pleaded not guilty to the charge of conducting a house of assignment at 105 North Main street and the date for his trial was set at Friday morning at ten o'clock.

Two warrants were served against Mrs. Coran, one for conducting an assignment house on North Bluff street and the other for the illegal sale of intoxicating liquors at the same place. Both these charges she pleaded not guilty and her trial date was also at ten o'clock Friday morning.

In the meantime both Mrs. Coran and Hand will be in the charge of the arresting officer, no longer being required for the present by City Attorney W. H. Dougherty who will be out of the city tomorrow and Thursday.

Warrants were in the possession of Chief of Police H. E. Ransom this morning for the arrest of Mrs. James Burton on the charge of selling liquor without a license and against John Hagarty charged with being an inmate of Mrs. Coran's assignment house. These were also served this afternoon and the cases were made returnable Friday morning.

Several other warrants including those against several retail liquor dealers were also ready to be served but will be held up for a time in order to prevent too great a rush of business in the municipal court.

Evidence against the persons arrested today was gathered by the corps of Milwaukee detectives which were employed by Mayor Ferguson to locate, if possible, the alleged violators of the city laws and ordinances, and to bring them to justice. It is not certain which case will be taken up first but probably either that against Mrs. Coran or Hand. The others will be adjourned until a later date to accommodate the court and the city attorney.

MANAGER MYERS HAS MADE EXPLANATION

Peter L. Myers, manager of the Myers Theatre, send the following signed communication to the Gazette relative to the article published in a morning paper relative to the small orchestra for the Sunday evening production of Fluke O'Hara.

Editor Janesville Daily Gazette:

Dear Sir:

Under the heading "Small Orchestra Called a Crime" an article is published in your morning paper wanting to know why only two musicians furnished the music for Fluke O'Hara Sunday evening. The reason was our account of the manager of the concert not allowing my men to rehearse as they arrived too late for a full orchestra rehearsal which I can verify if necessary by the following local musicians: Mr. Benkert, Mr. Stalter and Mr. Burchard. If the reporter did not receive the full worth of his money and 25 cents was the amount paid by him as I received my ticket at the door I refund any time he calls at my office.

Yours Very Truly,
Peter L. Myers.

TO COMMIT AMBROSE TO MENDOTA ASYLUM

Drs. W. T. Vankirk and T. W. Nuzum Conduct Examination As to His Sanity.

William Ambrose, who has been held for trial in the county jail on a charge of having murdered his daughter, a girl of sixteen years, was today examined for his sanity by Drs. W. T. Vankirk and T. W. Nuzum, appointed by Judge Maxfield. The physicians late today filed their report finding him to be of unsound mental condition. It was expected that Ambrose would be committed to the state hospital for the insane by Judge Maxfield this afternoon. The commitment was drawn, according to the announced intention, so that it could be held for his alleged offense.

According to the examining physicians Ambrose is suffering from hysteria, a case of chronic insanity. His nerves are in a bad condition and indications are that his case is curable.

HAVE BUSY MORNING IN MUNICIPAL COURT

Common Drunks Draw Severe Sentences—District Attorney Has Several Cases

Aside from the cases for alleged violation of the city ordinances relative to liquor sale and assignment houses this was a busy morning in the municipal court. Three men charged with drunkenness were arraigned when court opened at nine o'clock and Judge Maxfield again demonstrated his intentions to deal severely with offenders of this character. Richard Burton and Fred Eberdt, who claimed Chicago as their home, but who have been working with a bridge construction concern near Orlorville, each received fines of 10 to ten days in jail. William Kennedy who has been employed on farms in the vicinity of this city during the summer received a fine of $15 or the alternative of fifteen days in jail. All three took the jail assignment. The court was in session under the state law, chapter 625, laws of 1913, which provides for the employment of prisoners by the sheriff. Kennedy was the only one upon whom there was any deponent.

The case against Edwaine Carr, a Milton Junction youth who was arrested during carnival week for carrying concealed weapons, was brought up this morning. Young Carr pleaded guilty to the offense and District Attorney Dunfield asked the court to impose a small fine as the boy had very evidently not intended to commit a flagrant act. Judge Maxfield suspended sentence upon Carr's promise not to repeat the offense and on the promise of his grandfather, S. C. Carr, who was present in court.

Judge Maxfield also granted the petition of District Attorney Dunfield to continue Fred and Mary Kohloff minor children of Frank Kohloff in the custody of Mr. and Mrs. John Timmons until they attained the ages of 21 years. According to a previous agreement made in the municipal court the children were to be placed for next year, but on testimony of Poormaster Asa Anderson it was found that surrender of the boy to his father at this time would be against his best interests.

WELDING MACHINE

Electric Apparatus Has Electrodes Mounted in Swivels.

A new electric welding machine that is said to be a distinct improvement over most types used has been patented by an Ohio man. The new machine is said to be the setting of the electrodes, which are mounted in swivelled holders and capable of radial movement in any direction. In general appearance the machine resembles a sewing machine, with horizontal instead of vertical jaws. At the outer ends of the two arms two holders are swivelled, and it is in these holders that the dies, or electrodes, are set. The upper arm is movable and its position in relation to the lower arm can be changed by means of a lever. With electrodes thus set, the work can be easily manipulated, welded, and can be done on this machine to much greater satisfaction than where the dies are more or less fixed.

WOMAN'S PAGE

The Evening Chit-Chat

BY RUTH CAMERON

GOOD NEWS.

HERE is some very good news that I found tucked away in a corner of my morning paper one day:

A bill has been introduced into the legislature requiring applicants for marriage licenses, both men and women, to have health certificates dated within ten days.

Heavy penalties are provided for a doctor who falsifies a certificate or for a minister or official who marries a couple without one.

Why do I call that good news?

For at least two reasons.

In the first place, because I believe that the passage of such a law as that all over this country would mean one of the biggest steps to ward a single standard of morality for men and women.

Almost all men, however determined they are to sow their wild oats, in the bottom of their hearts look forward to a home of their own some day.

If these men knew that by their reckless sowing of wild oats they were running the risk of making themselves homeless forever and ever, I think they might be a little less reckless and indifferent.

And, in the second place, I believe that such a law would strike a big blow at one of the most heinous and knotty and diseased "roots" of the divorce evil.

"Make it harder for the wrong people to get married," is coming to be the universal war cry of the forces that are fighting divorce.

And if any class of persons is more thoroughly "wrong" from a marriageable standpoint, than those who will spread disease, who will propagate blindness, who will cause untold suffering in many ways, they must be hard to find.

For the woman's club that wants to do something for the improvement of womankind's status, for the betterment of the home and for the prevention of divorce, there is no better undertaking than to see what can be done about passing a similar law in their own particular section of the country.

Can you?

And in the meantime why should not such a requirement be made a personal affair? If legislators have decided that conditions are such that legislation of this sort is necessary, doesn't that fact point out their duty to the parents of every marriageable daughter?

The father asks his would-be son-in-law about the latter's business prospects, his ability to support the girl he wants to marry. Why not about his physical condition, his prospects of making the girl happy?

No good man who really loved a girl would resent such questioning. He would appreciate its wisdom. It would be only the man who could not show a clean bill of health who would object.

Some friend, I know, is shocked at my touching on this subject and is preparing to take up her pen and tell me "This is a matter we do not discuss in public."

Quite true, my friend. And Oh the tragedies of our silence.

HEART and HOME PROBLEMS

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I have been going with a boy for nearly three years and love him dearly. I have been with no other boys during that time, as I had no desire to be with anyone but him. About four months ago he met a girl and has been going with her on the sly, thinking I knew nothing about it.

(1) Do you think he is treating me mean, as I love him dearly?

(2) Does he care more for me or the girl he goes with on the sly?

(3) Will you please tell me something to do for perspiration?

My dear, you are not engaged to this young man, and he is at perfect liberty to go with other girls if he wants to. That's the trouble with people who just "set together." The girl feels she is bound and the man knows he is not.

(1) I do not think the girl is very kind. She would not like to have you do that to her. Still, as you are not engaged to the man, I suppose she sees no particular wrong in it.

(2) I don't know. I do not like a man who does anything on the sly unless you have driven him to it by showing that you are jealous and suspicious.

(3) You cannot stop perspiring if you are active, but if you will sponge your skin often with cool water and occasionally dab it with a solution of pure alcohol and water it will stop much of the unpleasantness.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a girl aged eighteen. Am engaged to a young man of twenty-eight. We are going to be married in November.

(1) What would be a nice wedding dress?

(2) Is there any harm in kissing after you are engaged?

(3) Should a girl go with other boys and write to them after she is engaged?

(4) Which is the more stylish this summer—tan or black slippers?

(5) How is my writing?

(1) Dress in white, my dear.

(2) You should be in second or third year high school now.

(3) It would be more polite not to.

(4) Braiding it tightly is harmful. Braid it very loosely.

(5) The boys are not so crazy to have the girls phone to them as you seem to think. If you care for this boy friend, keep away from the telephone. Let him do the calling.

Chopped mushrooms instead of the nuts are a nice change added to the mixture for stuffing and serving with a sauce piquante.

Fried Egg Plant.

Peel a good, plump egg plant, and cut into slices one-third of an inch thick. Season with salt, dip in beaten egg and roll in fine white bread crumbs. Sauté in very hot vegetable fat. When they are brown on one side turn and brown on the other. If egg plant is sliced very thin, egged and breaded it can be fried in deep vegetable fat.

Broiled Egg Plant.

While egg plant is very full of water it may be broiled or grilled if it is sprinkled with salt, the juice well pressed out and wiped dry before broiling.

Egg Plant With Eggs.

Materials—Egg plant, one; large tomato, one; bread crumbs, one cup; chopped onion, one; melted butter, one tablespoon; salt, one teaspoon; paprika.

Directions—Follow the recipe for "Boiling Egg Plant," remove from the water, cut in halves and scoop out the center. Chop fine. In the meantime have the tomato peeled, remove as many seeds as possible while cutting up line and add to chopped egg plant with the remaining ingredients. Stuff the egg plant and bake in a hot oven twenty minutes. Have ready the required number of eggs poached in milk. Dish the egg plant in the center of a platter and the egg around it with a dash of paprika on the top of each and finely chopped parsley over all.

The KITCHEN CABINET

ITCHES are so great a temptation to men and women, and self-indulgence, to which men are by nature prone, that the glory is all the greater of those who, born to simple fortunes, nevertheless take an active part in the work of their generation.

FOOD AND THE CHILD.

Children cannot digest food that needs mastication before they have teeth. This may seem an unnecessary remark, but watch the streets and cars as you pass back and forth and see the stuff that helpless childhood has forced upon it.

The fact that the child eats and seems to like what is given it seems to be the chief and only reason some mothers use in feeding.

Solid food must wait for teeth. The digestive juices, like the teeth, are not ready for use in the little child, as the milk, its natural food for nine months, fulfills every need.

As the child grows, food is needed to build up its teeth and bones as well as the other organs, and this food must be supplied or poor teeth and ill-nourished bodies will result.

Fat, except cream and butter, should be omitted in the child's diet until after the coming of the second teeth.

Acid foods, such as tomatoes, pickles and vinegar in any form, fresh and warm breads, woody vegetables uncooked should never be given a child until after it has its second teeth.

Throughout childhood all foods rich in spice or condiments, sugar except in small quantity, coffee, pastry, rich cakes and nuts, fried foods and rich gravies and dressings should be entirely omitted.

Candy, if allowed at all, should be home-made and administered in small doses.

Care should be taken by the zealous mother that not too great restriction is placed upon the diet of the child. He needs variety and should not be fed pre-digested foods, as the digestive tract must have exercise, as does the limbs or other parts of the body, in order to be normal.

Important points to bear in mind:

"Service and cooking of food control palatability."

"Selection and mastication determine nutrition."

"Bad habits cripple life, as do weak bones the body."

GIRLS! GIRLS! TRY IT, BEAUTIFY YOUR HAIR

Make it thick, glossy, wavy, luxuriant and remove dandruff—Real surprise for you.

Your hair becomes light, wavy, fluffy, abundant and appears as soft, lustrous and beautiful as a young girl's after a "Dandergine hair cleanse." Just try this—moisten a cloth with a little Dandergine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. This will cleanse the hair of dust, dirt and excessive oil and in just a few moments you have doubled the stopping itching and falling hair.

Besides beautifying the hair at once, Dandergine dissolves every particle of dandruff, cleanses, purifies and invigorates the scalp, forever stopping itching and falling hair.

But what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use when you will actually see new hair—fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair growing all over the scalp.

If you care for pretty, soft hair and lots of it surely get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Dandergine from any druggist or toilet counter, and just try it.

PRETTY DRESS OF WHITE WOOL VOILE

Daily Reminder. Often "cold feet" is the better judgment peculiarly manifesting itself.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

THINGS WORTH KNOWING. Mildew may be removed by soaking the garment in buttermilk for a time, and then allowing it to remain in the sun until the stain disappears.

Add one ounce of quicksilver to the whites of two eggs, well beaten, and apply with a feather for bed-bugs.

In cooking beans and peas, their flavor will be better if cooked in as little water as possible.

If you don't mind the odor, a very little turpentine rubbed well in with a bit of cloth will remove shine from clothing.

THE TABLE.

Date Pudding.—One cupful of sour milk, two-thirds cupful of sugar and molasses mixed, one tablespoonful of melted butter, one pound of dates and a half cup of flour. First stone the dates and cut in small pieces. Mix together the sour milk, sugar and molasses, melted butter, salt and soda (dissolved in a little warm water); then add the chopped dates, and lastly the two cupfuls of graham flour. Steam for two hours and then put in the oven for about fifteen minutes. This may be kept for days, and is better each time it is steamed. Serve with hard sauce or just plain cream and sugar.

Peppermint Ice Cream.—One pound of peppermint stick candy, one-half gallon of rich cream. Crush the peppermint candy, heat the cream in a double boiler, then pour it over the candy. Stir well and allow to cool. Freeze in the usual way. Serve with small cakes.

Meat Charcuterie in Rice.—Two cupfuls of chopped cooked meat, one-quarter cupful of bread crumbs, one teaspoonful of salt, one-quarter cupful of melted butter, one-half teaspoonful of white pepper, gravy or stock to moisten, one beaten egg, one-half tablespoonful of dried onion, three cupfuls of cooked rice, tomato sauce. Put the meat into a basin, add the egg well beaten, the salt, pepper, table sauce, onion, bread crumbs and melted butter and enough stock or gravy to moisten. Mix and turn into a mold which has been well buttered, and lined with two cupfuls of rice, place the remainder of the rice on the top, cover the mold with buttered paper, and steam steadily for forty-one minutes. Turn out on a hot platter and serve at once with hot tomato sauce.

Fruit Salad.—Line a water box with lettuce leaves and fill with mixed fruit. For a dressing make a white sauce with cream, add three tablespoonfuls of lemon juice, and before taking from the fire stir in the yolks of two eggs beaten with a quarter of a cupful of sugar. Add salt and ground nutmeg.

Orange Jelly.—One-half envelope gelatine, one-fourth cup cold water, one-half cup boiling water, one-half cup sugar, juice of one-half lemon and one-half pint of orange juice. Remove the juice from the oranges with a spoon to avoid the oil in the rind. Soak the gelatine in cold water five minutes and dissolve in the boiling water. Add the sugar and stir until dissolved and cooled. Strain through a cheese cloth; add the lemon and orange juice and turn into a wet mold. Serve very cold.

Lola Norris and Martha Warrington, the Sacramento (Cal.) high school girls who ran away with Drew Caminetti, son of the U. S. commissioner of immigration, and Maury Diggs, have been socially ostracized in Sacramento, although they were among the most prominent young society women in that city.

Diggs and Caminetti, both married men, were also very prominent in Sacramento.

It is this case which is stirring up so much trouble in Washington. Political opponents of the present administration are making the most out of it, as Attorney General McReynolds at first agreed to postpone the criminal action started against the men, acting on the suggestion of Commissioner General Caminetti, father of one of them.

CHICAGO'S TEN LADY COPS GUARDIANS FOR GIRLS; TABOOING TIGHT SKIRTS THEY WEAR BLUE TAILORMADES AND SILVER STARS

Chicago's policewomen.

Hereafter when the friendless country girl steps off the train in Chicago and starts out looking for work she will not have to fear the dangers of a big city. Somewhere along her route she will run into two women clad in modest blue tailor-made suits and wearing small silver stars and hats with blue bands. These are some of the new members of Chicago's police force.

Mayor Harrison has appointed ten women to act as police. Traveling in pairs, they will visit the dance halls, the small and the large parks, the excursion boats, the beaches, and the depots, and try to keep boys and girls off the streets late at night. Their work will be broader than that of policemen, their special field being to work for the good of Chicago's young people.

If it hurts, just grin and bear it. What's the use to cry and curse. Make the best of circumstances. Take what comes, it might be worse.

If you don't get what you're wanting. Want the things that you can get. You can't tell in the beginning. Just how high your mark to set. If your job don't suit your notion. And you think the other would. Just remember that the other fellow. Would swap—maybe—if he could.

This old world is full of people. And a year is made of days. Takes a lot of folks to fill up. All the time in many ways. But if you just keep on doing all. You can, your very best. Some day opportunity'll open. And you'll find you lead the rest.

Life don't look alike to people. Looking at it different ways. Better strike an average somehow. On the rain and shilly days. Wishes won't get there like hustle. Get and push with you, you'll see. Don't you ever wear your wishbone. Where your backbone ought to be.

Importation of Cigars. The cigar early became an article of commerce. Homemade cigars were smoked by Europeans in the North American colonies at the same time that pipe smoking became common. Cigars were brought into the American colonies and into the United States from the West Indies much earlier than the records show. They came in under the head of merchandise.

FORTY YEARS AGO

Janesville Daily Gazette, Sept. 9, 1873.—Southern Wisconsin Fair: As we have already announced, the ninth annual Southern Wisconsin fair will be held in this city beginning today and will continue until the twelfth of this month. The exhibition taking place on the commodious grounds of the Rock County Agricultural Society. There is no better place in the state of Wisconsin for a stock and agricultural exhibit than Janesville and under the efficient management of the officers of the society the previous fairs have been a flattering success. Our railroad communication is such that we can be readily reached from almost any part of the state and we are located in the central part of the finest agricultural district of which our city is a natural rallying point. The farmers coming here to dispose of their produce, feel a desire to gather annually at the market place to compare with the results of the year's labor. The society offers a liberal prize in cash.

The first covers every farm and household product and household (if we except babies, which were overlooked this year.) Col. D. Wyatt of Aiken, South Carolina, has been secured to deliver an address on the subject of the Grange. Favorable weather promises to bring vast crowds all during the exhibition and with the help of the housewives can accommodate all of those wishing to attend the bear fair in the state of Wisconsin.

The fifth assembly district, comprising the city of Janesville, convened last evening at the council rooms and was called to order by Magnus Hanson of the city committee. Various business for the year was transacted before adjournment.

An enthusiastic hunter refuses our prairie chicken statement of some time ago by asserting that a party of six men bagged eighty birds in the Janesville marsh one day last week. We did not suppose there were so many birds in all southern Wisconsin.

WORD TO THE WISE SUFFICIENT!
You office boys who grandmas have, "This 'tip' hail with acclaim— 'If granny dyes her hair each day You need not miss a game."
